SETTING GOALS & GAINING CLARITY IN YOUR BUSINESS

Okay, so I bet you are super excited to dig into this workbook. I am excited for you too!

I really want you to take a moment and set your 1,3 & 5-year goals. This is something you can always look back to in order to help you gain clarity and focus on your true mission instead of pivoting and losing traction.

Writing your goals down is like setting in stone what you want to achieve and putting it out there in the world. As your business grows your goals might shift but they should always come back to these root goals.

These goals should:

- + Help you measure the success of your efforts
- + Be realistic and achievable
- + They are relevant to your brand & business

TRACKING METRICS

Write down the goals & metrics you want to track over the next 6 months. Make them as realistic as possible. Print multiple pages out to use in the future. You also have a blank page to track any other metrics you would like.

CURRENT SUCCESS

Take a chance to look back at your business (if it is already up and running), what is working well and what is not working well. Think about the reason behind these answers. This will help you continue to practice what is doing well and to either work on or stop what is not doing well.

WRITE OUT YOUR MISSION STATEMENT

SECTION 4 Section 4

MY IDEAL CLIENT

What is your ideal client

The second thing I want to walk you through is, finding your ideal client avatar! It is the person that NEEDS your products or services. What you provide solves a problem to them and meets a specific need.

It is NOT only the person that wants to work with you but also the person YOU want to work with.

They are the people who want to buy your paid offer, will be opening those emails, and liking those Instagram posts. They are not just followers but your fans as well!

Why is it important in marketing:

- Narrows the scope of your efforts & enables you to use marketing and resources efficiently!
- Stronger leads. You know the people you are connecting with you are truly interested in what you have to offer.
- You understand what they need and can really tap into their stressors, this means you will be able to communicate with them in a way that they will connect with.
- Social media becomes easier. This was a BIG one for me. Once I knew exactly who my ideal client was, I was able to speak to them in a way that they could relate and connect with. I was able to incorporate story-telling that converted because I knew exactly WHO I was talking to to and what specific words & phrases would connect with them.

MY IDEAL CLIENT

TIPS & STRATEGY

Strategy 1

USE A CURRENT CLIENT, PREVIOUS CLIENT OR SOMEONE YOU WANT TO WORK WITH IN THE FUTURE

USE THE PAST VERSION OF YOURSELF. IF YOUR SERVICE/PRODUCT HELPS YOUR CLIENTS WITH SOMEONE THAT YOU PREVIOUSLY STRUGGLED WITH THEN THIS IS A GREAT STRATEGY TO USE!

STRATEGY 1

Interview a few people that you think might be your ideal clients or who have purchased from you in the past. Get on a zoom call or Skype if you cannot meet them in person. If at all possible, meeting them in person would be great because you will be able to see EXACTLY how they act. Ask them what their day-to-day life looks like. Breakfast? Morning routine? Commute? Work? Stay at home? Find out what they do by the hour. This is going to help you when crafting your content on social media. It will help you speak and develop a brand voice and story in a way that connects very strongly with your ideal client.

For example, if you know your ideal client has smoothies instead of coffee every morning you can write something like this in an Instagram caption "Okay guys, grab your smoothie, switch off the news and take a minute to read about why my latest goal-setting planner is going to change your life." Do you see what I did there? I knew 2 things about my client. They drink smoothies and watch the news so when they read this specific post they feel as if I am speaking directly to them and grabs the interest straight away!

MY IDEAL CLIENT

STRATEGY 2

Because we often create solutions to our problems, thinking about who we once were before our business might just be who our ideal client is now. For example, In my own business, I struggled with Pinterest so I took courses, learned all the things I needed to, and ended up growing my Pinterest to over 200 000 monthly viewers in a matter of weeks.

I cracked the code and could successfully grow my Pinterest account with ease.

That is why I made my Pinterest planner and workbook. It is a workbook that helps online entrepreneurs not only plan all aspects of Pinterest but also gives them to-the-point tips, tricks, checklists, and my exact strategy. It is affordable and I know if anyone who purchases the workbook implements the strategies and puts in the effort that they will without a doubt succeed.

The person I was before I learned anything re Pinterest is pretty much my ideal client for that product. I can now go and look at my pain points and struggles during this time and think about how I can translate that into words that will speak to my audience in the same situation now. If you created a product or service in your business that solved a problem you once had then looked at how you felt, things you did, and what frustrated you before this specific product/service was created is a great way to figure out who your ideal client is now.
