COMMANDING GOD TO MOVE

I want to teach you about commanding a space in God by living in the energy of the chamber consciousness with God. That is, you come AWAY with God and meet with God, and you create a sacred space for this.

As a woman with a devotional template, your chamber is your place where you are to create with God. It's the place where you come INTO God's presence and allow for the power of the spirit of God to MOVE on your behalf.

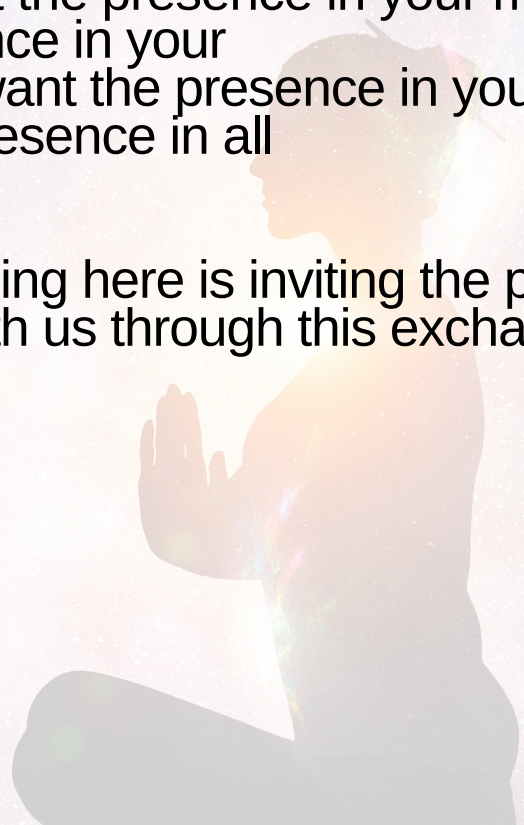

In this series, you are activating and practicing a sacred devotional space where you are engaging this space with a "sacrifice" – because you are moving beyond your comfort of sleep and instead, offering your time and energy for God to move in your life in an incredible way.

Historically, women who come into the chamber with God and PERSIST with God in the chamber leaves changed by the presence, and THE presence is what you want to have usher in your life so that your life is touched by this.

You want the PRESENCE in your heart, you want the presence in your relationship, and you want the PRESENCE in your love life, you want the presence in your family life, you want the presence in your home, you want the presence in your money, you want the presence in your business, you want the presence in your career, you want the presence in all you do!

What we are doing here is inviting the principle itself to commune with us through this exchange and sacred offering.

And without this chamber experience, many women find themselves feeling barren, thirsty, striving, stressing, wired, addicted, fixed on the lower aspects, and not on the high principle itself.

As you come to know that you are the LOVER and God is the lover of your soul...and come to the TRUE beloved, your FIRST beloved, your ONE.....and you are the priestess in service to God, and God is THE power in service to you and begin to say, I am going to lay my all on the altar and release, giving my heart and devotion to anything that isn't in mutual devotion to me, and I am going to see that I do not lose my devotion any longer.

God, we ask that you help us as women to no longer lose our devotion and our selves in anything, in a man, in people, in friends, in things that we no longer give up our devotion and stay suffering and hungry, we are choosing to renew our hearts tonight back to you.

Know that your heart was MADE for God and holds the key of power within it when it is creating WITH God...in the chamber. As you move from the outer courts and busyness and distractions to the inner court.

Understand that your heart was MADE to worship and exalt and that as a lover priestess, you may have given your worship to things or people that was not reciprocating this devotion to you. And this is where your heart has been feeling the BLEED... And as you come now into renewing your heart once again and saying God, I will put you FIRST and raise you on the throne of my heart and continue to create the space for this, Gods power can move in your life in stunning ways.

Invitation For Deepening Your Devotion

Invitation 1

To deepen your devotional energy and remap it, this requires you to move out of the old dysfunctional devotional energy to mortals and suffering.

Invitation 2

In order to move out of the old, you expand your comfort zone. In fact, if you want to see ANYTHING significant change in your life, your money, your business, with your partner, spouse, or anything you want change in, you cannot keep creating with the same energy within that space. You must GO beyond the current energy into a higher place.

Invitation 3

To help you begin to remap your devotion, you are going to create a “chamber space” – you can make it your sacred space – for example, an altar, your bed, a special room, etc. You will go to that place as “your place” and visit that place to spend time with God.

Invitation 4

For this series, you choose a time you want to have for the container, for example, 30 mins, 1 hour, 2 hours or you can choose mini times during day like 3 mins, 7 mins, 10 mins. Choose your time and set your time and stay in that chamber space for the duration of the time and use the energy of “pressing in” and tarrying, meaning you are holding on to God and you are not letting go.

You are staying with God until your time closes the chamber.

Invitation 5

For your chamber time, you can choose a certain hour of the day, but I highly recommend that you choose midnight, 5 am, or noon. These are time portals where the shifting over of consciousness and energy takes place.

WHY MIDNIGHT

Midnight is a historic portal where BREAKTHROUGHS takes place. It is shifting over of consciousness from the previous day into a new day. It is also where restoration and renewal happen.

If you want to experience MASSIVE shifts in your life, enter into this PORTAL space where you can access the DIVINE FIRST CODE of power to creating the NEW. For example, learn to create a 3-midnight chamber space in your life at least once a month and PRESS into this space for at least 1 hour.

The workshop is held nightly at midnight because of this.

It also accesses and ACTIVATES your Lover/Priestess code and helps you RECODE your devotional template if it's broken and patterned along with the incorrect frequency.

Once you are in your chamber, start with a 7 mins movement of your energy of “pressing in..” and then begin to tarry.

Tarry is when you are using one sentence to move into deeper layers of energy, and you are speaking it out loud with awareness as though you are seeking God for the breaking through or as though you are DEMANDING God to change what you believe MUST change.

An example of a sentence you can use for tarrying is the decree you learned in the holy activation meditation: “In the name of the I AM THAT I AM, I activate the power of the living God in my life now.”

You stay with that decree that you repeat over and over again while feeling where in your life you want God to move.

For example, if you have the intention for it to change your money, you focus your intention on this. If you are wanting it to change your love blueprint, you focus your intention on this.

You stay with that decree that you repeat over and over again while feeling where in your life you want God to move.

For example, if you have the intention for it to change your money, you focus your intention on this. If you want it to change your love blueprint, you focus your intention on this.

Divine Blessings,
